Haggai

CHAPTER 1

Verse 8: “Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.” Although the verse refers to the rebuilding of the temple after the Babylonian captivity, the prophetic application is the rebuilding of the Lord’s house when Christ returns, a time when Jesus will truly be “glorified,” as the verse says. A good cross reference is Isaiah 2:2: “And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD’S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.”

CHAPTER 2

Verses 6-7: “For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.” The shaking is at the Second Coming, and the “desire of all nations” is the Lord Jesus Christ bringing righteousness, peace, and joy to the earth. This is the text from which Bach got his Jesu Joy of Man’s Desiring.
